> KERENSKY PLEADS FOR IM. MEDIATE HELP.

Autocrats of Nation Must Receive Same Treatment as Meted Out to Germany.

(By D. M. Edwards.)

London, Nov. 4.—"This hour of victory should be the hour of resurrection and regeneration for Russia." declared Alvexander Kerensky, former f. mier of Russia, in an exclusive interview given to the International News Service, today. Mr. Kerensky said that Lenine Trotzky and other autocrats of the bolshevik regime should be treated along the lines of "resident Wilson's demands on the kaiser and the irman autocrats to make Russia safe. The former Russian premier pleaded for immediate help and pressure.

"After the co. clusion of peace be-tween the allies and Germany, the crimes of the usurpers of power in Russia will continue it our victorious armies do not apply immediately to the autocrats of Russia the same measures they are applying to the auto-crats of Germany," declared Kerensky. "Owing to the noble initiative of America the allies will have to put or-ward as one of the conditions of peace, the establishment in Germany of a the establishment in Germany of a government based on the principle of the sovereignty of the people. Normal relations between the allies and Russia must be re-established immediately, and for that purpose a pro-visional government was re-established by the national assembly at Oufa. It must be immediately recognized and the normal status of all Russian government institutions in allied countries must be restored. DIED OF WOUNDS

Letter Tells of Sacrifice Made by Young Ridgedale Boy in France.

John L. Holdnm, of 2315 East Twelfth street, Ridgedale, has received notice that his son. Corpl. August Holdam, died Oct. 19 from wounds received in action. The young man was attached to the 117th mfantry, which seems to have been engaged in severe fighting recently, as three other Chattanooga boys of this command were reported wounded in Saturday's News. The notice of his death came in the form of a letteer from the regimental chaplain, and stated that the gallant young soldier never regained consciousness after being wounded, and that he was buried in a British cemetery. About the date he is said to have given up his young life for the country he loved, his parents received a cheerful letter from him. As they have received noword from the war department they cling to the slender hope that a possible mistake has been made. On the service flag of this home two stars of bine have proudly floated to the breeze. John G., an older brother, is also "over there" doing his part for his country.

August Holdam was an exemplary young man of rare Christian virtues. He doing his part for his country.

August Holdam was an exemplary young man of rare Christian virtues. He was reared in this city, and was a graduate of Central High school. Few young men were more beloved or held in higher esteem by their neighbors than was this gallant, manly, Christian young man. He was brave and gentle—brave enough to dare to be a Christian against all odds—and when he went out to fight for his country he carried that same gentle spirit to the battlefields of France.

A star of blue and one of gold will now hang side by side in this saddened home, and all Ridgedale will mourn as another gold star replaces one of blue in the large service flag which floats proudly to the breeze in front of No. 8 fire hall.
